 Program: Tübingen Virtual Intercultural Pre-Package (Tü-VIPP)
 October 5 – December 18, 2020
 Institution: University of Tübingen

The University of Tübingen offers a unique virtual course program to those international students who cannot attend Tübingen University in presence (due to the pandemic or other reasons). It can also serve perfectly as a preparatory course program for students who intend to study at Tübingen University at a later point in time. The name TÜ-VIPP demonstrates that we consider our international students our true VIPs. The Tübingen – Virtual Intercultural Pre-Package (Tü-VIPP) includes various courses on topics such as German language, culture, politics and society as well as intercultural communication and exchange. A virtual buddy program is also included. Students can choose one or several courses. For further questions, please contact the International Office at Tübingen University.
